Berlin, Oct. 22.—Capture of the northern France canal system from Arras to the river Oise after hard fighting is announced here. This is expected to have immediate effect on the fighting about Lille, which is considered here to be decisive as to the results on the western battle front.

It is also stated that every attack of the Allies has been repulsed with heavy losses.

Kaiser's Army Nearing Warsaw

Petrograd, Oct. 22.—While great throngs were parading the streets cheering for the armies of the Allies an official news agency issued a statement which failed to disguise the fact that the German army is only a few miles from Warsaw. It is stated the Germans had tried to push forward between Pruszkow and Blonie (eight miles from Warsaw) but had been repulsed.

Documents taken from prisoners show Germans were confident of enfilading south of Przemysl for six and 17th. Silesian troops are showing great bravery. Heavy fighting south of Przemysl for six days with Austrian losses heavy. Thousands of prisoners were taken.

ARNOLD JURY IN A MISTRIAL

Seeking his liberty on a plea of insanity, the case of the United States against L. I. Arnold, formerly a rural letter carrier of Route one, Headland, who is charged with embezzlement, went to the jury yesterday afternoon, and a mistrial was reported last night.

It is alleged that Arnold developed the habit of receiving money for money orders, but instead of sending the money to its destination, would keep it. It is claimed that he did this in several instances.

When the case went to trial, lawyers for Arnold claimed that he was insane at the time of the alleged misconduct with funds, and introduced witnesses to show that the father of the defendant died in an asylum.

J. A. Weems, of Webb, was in Dothan for a while today.

DEFENSE WILL PROVE THAT MAN SLEW MRS. BAILEY

Mineola, Long Island, Oct. 22.—A big crowd of fashionably attired women crowded the court room today at the Carmen trial.

Tramp Farrell took the stand today for cross examination and was badly tangled up by counsel for defense. The state then rested its case. Mrs. Carmen is bright and cheerful.

The defense stated it would prove that a man killed Mrs. Bailey.

LEADERS FOR COTTON RELIEF ABANDEN HOPE

Washington, Oct. 22.—With adjournment by tonight practically assured the Senate and House took up the conference report on the war tax bill for final passage. Leaders for cotton relief legislation have abandoned hope.

The war tax bill will raise ninety million dollars annually instead of a hundred and five millions as originally planned. The cut was made by reducing the tax on beer from a dollar seventy-five to a dollar and a half and elimination of the five cent tax on rectified spirits.

House passed tax bill 125 to 52.

OLD CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

W. F. Gregory, One of Dothan's Earliest Settlers, Succumbs to Dropsy and Bright's Disease. Burial This Afternoon.

Following an extended illness, W. F. Gregory, a pioneer citizen of Dothan, died at his home, South Appletree street, last night shortly after 12 o'clock from dropsy and Bright's disease.

Funeral services for Mr. Gregory are to be held this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, Rev. C. B. Pilley, pastor of the LaFayette Avenue Methodist church, and Rev. E. H. Jennings, pastor of the First Baptist church, being the officiating ministers. Burial will take place at the city cemetery. The pall bearers are John Cray, W. P. Skelton, John Dixon, Frank Brown, Dan Jenkins, Joe Merritt, J. M. Mansell and L. C. Ezell.

Mr. Gregory is survived by his wife and several children. He has been a citizen of Dothan for many years, locating here in the early days of this section. The deceased knew many of the older settlers with whom he associated in their younger days. Mr. Gregory was born at Clayton, July 4, 1849. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Signed Petition.

W. F. Gregory was one of the original twenty-two signers of a petition that was presented to Judge Dan Gordon in 1885 asking that an election be called in Dothan to vote upon whether the town should be incorporated. Of these original petitioners, the following are still alive: W. J. Jenkins, J. P. Folkes, J. A. McEachern, J. M. Sneed, J. D. Baxley, W. J. Baxley, J. H. Sewell, H. A. Powell.

Mr. Gregory also had the peculiar distinction of assisting the town marshal in making the first arrest following the incorporation of Dothan. In those days Dothan was rather wild and wooly, as the term goes, and arresting the first man under a new system of affairs was by no means a small task.

Not On Man.

As the story goes, the town calaboose had been built and was ready for occupancy with the exception of hanging the doors. While this

GERMANS CONTINUE VIOLENT ATTACKS AGAINST ALLIES

Paris, Oct. 22.—The following official statement was made at three o'clock this afternoon:

"On our left the Germans continue violent attacks around Dixmunde, Warneton, Armentieres, Eadingham, and Labasse. Attacks were repulsed. On the rest of the front the enemy has made only partial attacks, which have been repulsed. We have advanced slightly in Argonne and Woivre region."

OATS AS A PARTIAL SUBSTITUTE FOR COTTON

By J. F. DUGGAR, Director Alabama Experiment Station, Auburn.

To decrease enormously the cotton acreage of 1915 or to accept for the crop of 1915 a price far below the cost of production is the choice that Southern farmers are compelled to make. Both alternative are inconvenient, but the reduction of cotton acreage is universally recognized as preferable to another year of ruinous prices. The choice should be made immediately and in such a way that buyers of cotton would have convincing proof that a very small crop will be produced in 1915. To what extent should the acreage in cotton be reduced? The general opinion is that the cotton acreage in 1915 should not be more than half that of 1914. On this basis Alabama farmers would need to find other uses for nearly two million acres of land now cropped in cotton.

After careful consideration of each of a number of crops, including the probable demand for each, its adaptability to our soils, climate and labor conditions, the conclusion is reached that oats is one of the two crops that should be most extensively substituted for cotton.

CHARGED WITH BLACKMAILING

Charged with sending a blackmail letter through the mails, Walter D. Seymour, formerly of Dothan, was put on trial in the United States court here today. Judge Henry D. Clayton, sitting. The defendant pleaded not guilty.

The letter, which was read in court, and which is said to have been received by McKenzie, berated his character and told him to go to a certain place near Panama City, Fla., and deposit several thousand dollars, the amount being named. Should he fail to do this, the letter said, he would be killed. Instead of placing the money as directed, McKenzie turned the matter over to the authorities for investigation. The arrest of Seymour followed.

The question of handwriting figured largely in the trial, both sides introducing experts, some of the testimony being in favor of the defendant and other testimony against him. The defense introduced a number of respected citizens who testified to the good reputation of the defendant.

JOHN MCGRAW WILL HAVE HIS RAMP TEAM IN 1915

By Frank G. Menke.

New York, Oct. 22.—Those who are looking for John McGraw to bust up the 1914 Giant machine and heave it into the scrap heap are due for a disappointment. John may do a little tinkering here and there but when the Giant machine of 1915 gets into motion there won't be very many new cogs in its make-up.

There are two reasons why the Giants won't be reassembled entirely. One is that McGraw feels that his 1914 outfit is good enough to grab a pennant if a few weak cogs are removed and some new ones substituted. The other reason is that the most of the 1914 regulars are hooked up by iron-clad three year contracts.

McGraw couldn't put his old stars on the market and get value received for them. He couldn't offer them for sale and find many ready buyers because those who are in the market for players don't want to pay a fancy price for men and also fancy salaries to the players for the 1915 and 1916 seasons as would be the case if they bought some of the Giants.

The Giants' pitching staff in 1915 won't look much different than it did in 1914. Mathewson, Tooten, Marquard and Demaree are attached to the club by contracts that still have two years to run. McGraw wouldn't let Tooten or Matty go no matter what offer was made. He will keep Demaree because "Stomper Al" looks like a real pitcher and he will keep Marquard unless some other club makes him a most tempting offer for the eccentric left hander.

Contrary to the general belief, McGraw isn't anxious to let Marquard go. He figures that 1914 was "Rube's" off year. He recalls the fact that nearly a dozen of the games that "Rube" lost was not through any fault of "Rube's" but because the Giants' time and again failed to hit him. A half dozen of "Rube's" defeats were 1 to 0 or 2 to 1 affairs.

"When a pitcher loses games of that kind it doesn't reflect on his ability—it reflects on the lack of batting power behind him," declared McGraw.

Ever since the middle of July the rank and file of fans have been "canning" Merkle, the Giants' first sacker. Firing Merkle seems to be one of the annual ways the fans have of entertaining themselves, but when McGraw finds some star of the first water among his first sacking recruits next spring, Merkle will be back at his old station. McGraw thinks a lot of Merkle's ability.

Doyle will be back at second next year. He slumped badly this year both in fielding and hitting, but are following up advantage with counter attacks.

Allies now occupy Nieuport and have pushed the Germans westward from Dixmunde. A dispatch to The Daily Mail says the Allies have occupied Central in Belgium.

Doyle normally is a steady batter and a slugger. Probably he will do a come-back in 1915.

Fletcher will be at short center. Outside of Maraville of the Braves there is no better fielding shortstop in the National League. Fletcher is a timely hitter and fast on the paths. McGraw regards him as one of the most valuable players he ever had.

A stranger may be stationed at third when the 1915 season opens. Storch, the regular, is a good fielder but weak with the stick. Eddie Grant, the alternate, is going down and cannot be looked upon to hold down the job in regular fashion. McGraw has a number of reserves who are candidates for the job, but he wants to get a seasoned player and may put through some trade this winter that may land a third sacker for him.

The outfield will cause McGraw but little worry. Burns will be back in left—that's certain. Deadman most likely will be in center. For the rightfield job, McGraw will make his choice from a host of recruits, in addition to Robertson, Thorpe, Murray and Reacher. Murray and Reacher are nearly through as big leaguers, but may show a reversal of form next spring that will entitle them to jobs.

Behind the bat Meyers, McLean and Smith, will do the bulk of the work. Meyers had a bad year, but McGraw doesn't think the Indian is all in—he thinks that he simply slumped and will come back. McLean is steady and reliable. Smith, a youngster, brought up from the Southern League, showed great style during the last few games of the season and may blossom into one of the best catchers in the league.

McGraw has about 15 young pitchers—and some old ones—to choose from to select the quartet of twirlers who will act as "support string" men to Mooty, Tooten, Demaree and Marquard.

So, John, despite reports to the contrary, isn't worrying much about 1915.

OUT OVER THE HABIT.

It is to be hoped by good democrats and the other kind, that the present campaign for sheriff may be prosecuted enough to make it even a more hazardous thing to run independent in the future than it is now.

Personally, we know of no one who dislikes Tom Butler. He made a good sheriff, he is clever and efficient, but he's in the wrong, and this is the time for the people to say so. He has no excuse for running independent. He had none when he ran as an independent against Judge Crawford and the habit should be cured.

Past history in this county and in this town, shows that the people don't stand for bolters from a primary. No independent has ever won a respectable vote, and the bolters have usually put out strong men, men who would have been hard to defeat before the primary.

It is very likely that Mr. Butler doesn't expect to be elected this time, but enough money is put into his hands that he can afford to make the race if he is opposed. Certain it is, that he will never be a political factor in Houston county any more. Had he remained out of the Sheriff's race, as a disunion the decision of his party properly, he would have been a hard man to defeat for probate judge in the next campaign.

Mayor Baker, who is bringing his machinery to bear on this campaign to defeat the Democratic nominees, is quoted as having said recently that he himself would make the race for probate judge. He is in a bad plight to get before the Democracy of this county, as any other citizen who attempts to override the wishes of a majority of the people, he is committing a laying a predicate that will rise up in his path.

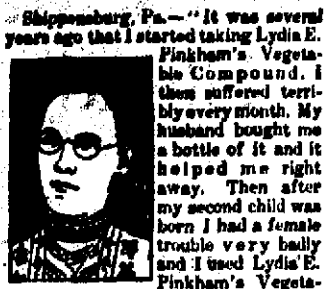

It is time the people were rising up in such numbers that no one will dare break away from the platform of the Democratic party. No candidate is going to please everybody. That's impossible but what a majority of the people may should do, is to practice so long established (and it shouldn't now be ignored).

Mr. Chandler, of Atlanta, is right. He says that we have too many people to get any relief from the situation. Every man who wants to do much has his own way to go. He believes that it would be a way to tide over the depression.

MRS. BEIDEL TELLS WOMEN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health for 14 Years.

Shippensburg, Pa.—"It was several years ago that I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I then suffered terribly every month. My husband bought me a bottle of it and it helped me right away. Then after my second child was born I had a female trouble very badly and I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and in a short time was cured and have been in excellent health since. I always praise the Compound whenever I have an opportunity as I know it helped me and will help others. Lately I have given the Compound to my daughter and I wish all suffering women would take it and be convinced of its worth."—Mrs. JAMES A. BEIDEL, 113 N. Penn Street, Shippensburg, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

used, the consumption of cotton would jump at once. And the people could do it. They just hadn't thought of it seriously.

PLANT OATS.

Farmers can make no mistake by planting oats. They will make a good crop every year, one with the other, and they are a profitable crop. When a man plants feed stuff for man or beast it will sell. It doesn't matter how the war rages. Such stuff is used when people are at peace, and when they are at war.

And there is no reason why this country shouldn't be in good condition next year if they will not plan for food crops.

As this is written there lays a 17-pound sweet potato in the office showing the possibilities in this line. Potatoes are, like bread, the staff of life.

Now, while there is plenty of time, people should get ready to plant something for next year's consumption. No need to worry over cotton. That's out of the question at the present. If it were not, the boll weevil would make it so.

AN OLD CITIZEN.

The passing away of W. F. Gregory is a notable event, because he was one of the few early citizens of Dothan. While Dothan is a young town, still, there are few of those old pioneers now living who came here and laid the foundation of this thriving city. Mr. Gregory has seen all the work done here, for he has been a citizen of this city almost continuously since he signed the petition asking that an election be held to see whether the town should be incorporated or not. At that time, only qualified electors could sign the petition, and there were but twenty-two signers, showing Dothan's voting strength in 1885.

Mr. Gregory has always had confidence in Dothan's future, and talked for the town and its enterprises from the first days of its existence.

MANNERS MADE, NOT INHERITED.

In an article entitled, "Why Children Are So," Marion Harland makes a plea for the good-mannered days of our grandmothers in the October Pictorial Review. She says in part:

"The girl who is allowed to speak disrespectfully to her mother will be tart to her husband. The boy who struts through the house, cap on head, whistling and shouting, will, as a man shed manners as he pulls off his overcoat in the hall of his own home; will sit down to table in his shirt-sleeves when nobody is present but his family, and will bid his wife 'hold her tongue for a fool' when she moves him to wrath."

"Before a child can walk he should be set to study what I have named as the basic principle of good breeding, consideration for others' feelings and comfort. By the time his tongue can form a word, he should be taught to put his hand readily into that offered by a visitor; to say, 'Please,' before any coveted object is given to him, and 'Thank you,' when he receives it. In like manner as he gains the use of his feet and the language he is to speak, teach him not to pass between other people and the fire or between those who are conversing with one another; to say, 'Excuse me,' when he stumbles over one's feet, or treads upon a woman's dress, or hiccups (or is guilty of any other minor breach of etiquette, frown from the first that he shall reply respectfully and readily when he is addressed. On entering the house he should remove his cap as instinctively as he should rise when mother or sister or any other woman comes into the room, and should remain standing while they stand. He should be drilled into deferential silence while his elders are speaking and never to contradict. With respect to table manners, his education should begin as soon as he can sit in a high chair and be fed from a spoon. I have seen a year-old baby eat with a grave decorum which his elders might well emulate."

"I repeat that manners must be made, and that they are never inherited. I also emphasize the fact that to form them is not an easy task."

Kill King Cotton.

This county last year imported 3,000,000 bushels of potatoes, 22,500,000 bushels of oats and 13,600,000 bushels of corn. Large quantities of these importations found their way into the South, directly or indirectly and yet we have the soil, the labor and certainly the stimulus of necessity to make us grow these crops. Cotton has been absolute monarch long enough. Let's abolish his sway.—Selma Times.

SUFFERED 21 YEARS—

FINALLY FOUND RELIEF

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root. Injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours,

GREAT MAJESTIC RANGES

ONE WEEK
ONLY

October 26 to 31st., 1914

ONE WEEK
ONLY

Save $8.00

As a special inducement during our demonstration week only, with every MAJESTIC RANGE sold (price always the same) we will give free one handsome set of ware as illustrated here.

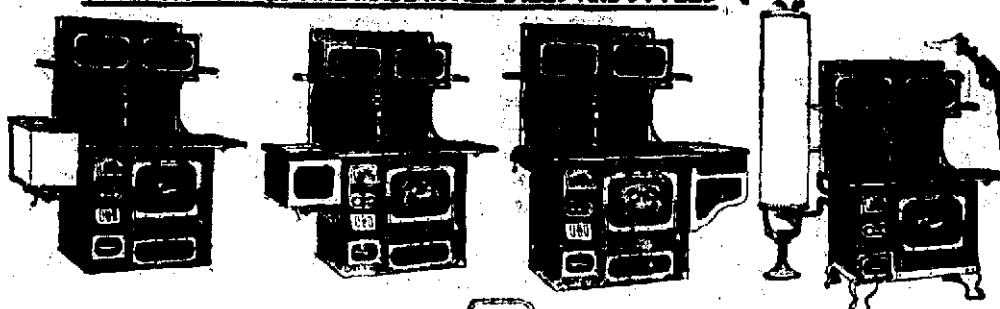

Every piece of this ware is the best of its kind. Not a piece that is not needed in every kitchen. It cannot possibly be bought for less than $8.00. This ware is on exhibition at our store. DON'T FAIL TO SEE IT.

The Great Majestic Malleable & Charcoal Iron Range.

You make no mistake in buying the GREAT MAJESTIC—It's the range with THE REPUTATION—ask your neighbors. Then, too, it's made just right and of the right kind of material—MALEABLE AND CHARCOAL IRON—riveted together practically air tight—lined with pure asbestos—parts being malleable can't break—has a movable reservoir and an oven that doesn't warp—that's why the MAJESTIC uses so little fuel, bakes just right every day in the year (throws bread just right all over without turning), heats 15 gallons of water while "breakfast" is cooking—properly handled lasts a lifetime, and costs practically nothing for repairs.

Don't buy the range you expect to last a lifetime "unsight unseen;" you'll be sure to be disappointed. Come to our store during demonstration week, see the GREAT MAJESTIC—have its many exclusive features explained—find out why the MAJESTIC is 200 per cent stronger than other ranges where most ranges are weakest.

SOUVENIR DAY

100 TANGO HOOPS FREE

The first 100 boys and girls who present to THE MAJESTIC RANGE SALESMAN at our store, between 3 and 5 p. m. TUESDAY, written answers to the following questions, will receive a "TANGO HOOP Souvenir" FREE.

- 1—What range is your mother now using?
- 2—Do you know anyone needing a new range? Who?
- 3—Why should the GREAT MAJESTIC RANGE be in every kitchen?

$1.00 ARTICLE FREE.

The one giving neatest and best answer to the last question will select any $1.00 article from our stock, in addition to the SOUVENIR.

Don't be discouraged if you are not one of the 100 to get a Tango Hoop Souvenir. You will get a MAJESTIC PUZZLE CARD. Something for all the boys and girls.

Don't fail to get one of these Tango Hoops. It's a new and wonderful toy—amuses the old as well as the young. The Hoop dances forward, hesitates and returns to the operator. Children, it's great, and will be the talk of the town.

Be sure to have your answers ready to hand in at our store TUESDAY AFTERNOON, between 3 and 5. They must be written answers—OTHERWISE YOU WILL NOT get a souvenir.

SPECIAL

All during this week a special demonstration direct from the MAJESTIC FACTORY will be glad to show you "ALL ABOUT RANGES"—show you why the MAJESTIC is the best range on earth at any price. COME, IF YOU INTEND TO BUY OR KNOW HOW THE MAJESTIC RANGE IS HEATED—KNOW how the water is heated—HOW the top is heated—WHY the MAJESTIC uses so little fuel—KNOW how a range is made inside and out—this education may serve you in the future. Don't lose your chance to KNOW THINGS shown by one who knows.

DON'T OVERLOOK THE DATE. THIS IS A SPECIAL INVITATION TO YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

IN ONE MINUTE! CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN—COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

Stops Nasty Discharge, Clears Stuffed Head, Heals Inflamed Air Passages and You Breathe Freely.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely, dulness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

OATS AN A PARTIAL SUBSTITUTE FOR COTTON

Of course corn is the other.

It is believed that a million acres in oats may be advantageously grown on the farms of Alabama in ly fertilized, make better use of poor land than do most plants other than the legumes, or soil improving plants.

2. This crop is one that our best farmers know how to grow profitably and their methods of growing it can easily be adopted almost universally.

3. Oats, unlike most grains, are not destroyed by weevils and grain moths and can be kept indefinitely in good condition.

4. The European war has greatly advanced the price of all crops, and the probable inability of many European nations to sow normal amounts of food crops in 1915 is likely to result in continued high prices of feed oats in the principal markets.

5. The need for oats to be fed on the farm next summer instead of high priced corn is urgent now, because of the disappointing yields of corn in some parts of Alabama in 1914.

6. A crop of oats invites the growing of cowpeas or other summer growing leguminous plants, which will result in increased fertility and larger yields of any crop on that land in 1916.

7. The extensive sowing of fall oats throughout the South will do more than any other agricultural operation to increase the price of hold-over cotton of the crop of 1914, by giving notice to consumers of cotton that the production of a large crop of cotton in 1915 is a physical impossibility.

Some Difficulties to be Overcome

1. The late date at which some of the cotton is picked.

2. Injury to growing grain by stock running at large in winter.

3. An insufficient number of grain binders, threshers and grain drills, and insufficient ready money to purchase them.

4. Inexperience of most farmers in cleaning for market and in selling feed oats.

5. Absence of granaries or tight storage houses.

6. Necessity of selling oats from a large acreage at the price of feed oats instead of at the high price of seed oats.

Let each farmer consider whether the few late cotton bolls (already injured in the boll weevil section) have a higher net value at the present prices of cotton than the amount he would gain by sowing oats at an early date. Moreover, with three-hole grain drills oats may be drilled between the rows of unpicked cotton.

Now, more than ever before, it is true, that winter growing crops of oats, wheat, rye, crimson clover, bur clover and vetch are of far more value than the small amount of grazing furnished by dead cotton and corn stalks. Where a dozen or more neighbors sow winter grain or unfenced fields, public sentiment is usually able to prevent the turning out of stock in winter.

But if grain fields must be fenced, fencing should be regarded as a permanent improvement which will be urgently needed in the coming years for inclosing pastures, which is the first step in raising a larger number of livestock.

Many more grain binders, threshers, and drills are needed. Co-operative purchase of these machines by several farmers is one of the means of making it possible to increase the number of such machines in use. Leases made for the purchase of grain binders are among the safest and most productive investments. Small areas of oats, especially if not intended for threshing may even be harvested with the mow and rake.

Buildings used for other purposes may often be made tight enough for bulked oats, even if not made rat-proof.

A later article will deal with the most essential points in securing a profitable yield of oats.

SOCIETY NEWS

MRS. ERIC GELLERSTEDT, Editor.

TELEPHONE 644

If all our lives were one broad glare
Of sunlight, clear, unclouded;

If all our paths were smooth and fair,

By no deep gloom enshrouded,
Then we should miss the darker hours.

The intermingling sadness,
And pray, perhaps, for storms and showers.

To break the constant gladness.

If none were sick and none were sad,

What service could we render?
I think if we were always glad
We hardly could be tender.

Did our beloved never need

Our tender ministrations,

Life would grow cold, and miss, indeed,

Its sweet consolation.

If sorrow never smote the heart

And every wish were granted,

Then faith would die and hope depart.

And life be disenchanted.

And if in Heaven is no more night

In Heaven is no more sorrow

Such unimagined, pure delight.

Fresh worth from pain would borrow.

WE REDUCE THE PRICE

The market price of gasoline has not been reduced in several months, however we have from time to time been making reductions as our volume increased. Today the market is the same as it was two months ago, but our volume has increased to such an extent that we can give our customers and prospective customers the benefit of this reduction at this time, and at the same time put this part of our business on a strictly cash basis, therefore from now on we will not sell gasoline except for CASH ONLY.

Our price of 17 cents is the same as that of the oil wagons, so it is not necessary for you to trouble yourself looking for oil wagons when you can drive to our GASOLINE AND OIL SERVICE STATION and get prompt service.

Also please bear in mind the fact that there are different grades of gasoline the same as of clothes, hats, shoes, etc., and when buying demand that you get a pure 65 gravity gasoline. Our TEXACO HIGH GRADE GASOLINE will stand this test every day in the week and sells for the same.

If you are not buying from us, begin now,—you'll be glad you started. We make it our business to please you.

Free Air

Free Water

For the convenience of gasoline and oil customers, we are installing this week, a FREE AIR AND WATER station. When you drive to our Service Station, whether you want to buy anything or not, if you need AIR or WATER say the word and we are there to wait on you.
